66th Annual Spring Dispatch Home & Garden Show Returning to Ohio Expo Center

New York Times bestselling, award-winning Pete the Cat author Eric Litwin joining the show

Columbus, Ohio – More than 165 vendors local home and garden businesses will be at the 2022 Spring Dispatch Home & Garden Show presented by Ohio Mulch. The 66th annual show will take over the Bricker and Celeste Buildings at the Ohio Expo Center, Feb. 19 through the 27.

“People are really feeling the effects of winter by the end of February, so we are excited to give people a glimpse of spring, get inspiration early and show them there is light at the end of the long winter tunnel,” said the Home & Garden Show General Manager Stephen Buzza. “The incredible garden designs following the theme of ‘Garden Party’ will inspire us all to start planning the celebrations we’ve held off on throughout the pandemic.”

The Spring Dispatch Home & Garden Show will feature more than 165 gardening, landscape and home remodeling experts, most of which are local, family-owned businesses. The overall space for gardens will be extended, with added lighting to create a colorful, attractive vibe and to give homeowners more ideas for lighting their own outdoor areas.

And to entertain the kids, the Spring Home & Garden Show welcomes back song singing, guitar strumming, New York Times bestselling, award-winning Pete the Cat author Eric Litwin on Monday, February 21 at 1 pm and 4 pm. Litwin’s goal is to bring early literacy and music together in an entertaining, enchanting fashion. Litwin’s books have sold over 13 million copies, been translated into 17 languages, and won 26 literacy awards including a Theodor Geisel Seuss Honor Award.
