Shadowbox Live Kicks Off 2022 with Unique Takes on Sex and Pink Floyd

(Columbus, OH)— Shadowbox Live kicks off 2022 – it’s first year with a complete slate of shows since the pandemic shutdown – with two productions featuring wildly inventive, entertaining, and funny takes on intimate relationships and the great British band that defined progressive rock in the 1970s, Pink Floyd.

January starts out with Shadowbox’s all-original, new take-no-prisoners blowout Best. Sex. Ever. – two acts of sketch comedy and music centered on everyone’s favorite past time. America’s largest full-time resident theatre ensemble flings the bedroom door wide open as the they explore, laugh at, and sing about the dirty little secrets we keep in between the sheets. This over-the-top and decidedly adult-themed production will run through April 30.

In February, Shadowbox Live brings back -- for a limited run -- Which One’s Pink?—A Pink Floyd Tribute Show. Described as “stirring, dark and beautiful,” this metamedia production uses compelling stories, dynamic video and original dance to celebrate the music of one of the biggest bands of all time. The show debuted in 2015 and is being reimagined for the 2022 presentation. Act 1 tells explores the band’s repertoire through some of their most well-known songs. Act 2 pays homage to the album Dark Side of the Moon, pairing the music with video excerpts and live action interpretation of the Wizard of Oz.

“I think, as much as any two shows we’ve paired together, that these two productions really showcase the wide range of musical and performance talent that Shadowbox is capable of,” said Stacie Boord, Shadowbox Live’s CEO. “Which One’s Pink is a real sonic journey and a bit introspective, while Best. Sex. Ever is just decidedly silly and a blast from beginning to end.”
